Professional Endeavour:

Had established 'Pakistan Association of International Relations–PAIR', a non-political and non-profitable association for mid-career researchers, academicians, and young scholars dedicated to strengthen the culture of research and higher education in Pakistan. The association has no political, sectarian, and religious agenda to achieve rather it signifies collectiveness of the society as a democratic and progressive nation. The mission of the Association is to project and promote independent research and culture of higher learning necessary to address the national purpose of Pakistan.
