

Dr. Muhammad Saud

Dr. Saud is currently working as IPFP Fellow in the Department of Sociology, Faculty of Social Sciences, International Islamic University, Islamabad Pakistan. He completed his PhD in Sociology from the Department of Sociology, Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, University of Airlanga, Indonesia. He has been working as Lecturer at, the Department of Sociology, University of Airlangga, Indonesia. He possesses diversified experience in project management, research and teaching. He also has experience working with multiple donors and local NGOs and INGOs located in Islamabad and other cities of Pakistan.

His areas of interest have been Youth Political Participation, social media, Civic Engagement, Youth Activism, Sociology of Youth and Research & Development. He has training exposure to famous universities of the world. His research work has been published in national and international reputable journals. He has written a good number of research papers, book chapters and conference proceedings on youth studies. He's currently engaged in funded projects with Pakistani and East Asian universities on the Democratic Practice and Youth political participation.

Selected Publications

1. Saud, M., Ida, R., & Mashud, M. I. (2020). Democratic practices and youth in political participation: a doctoral study. International Journal of Adolescence and Youth, 25 (1), 800-808. <https://doi.org/10.1080/02673843.2020.1746676>
2. Saud, M. (2020). Youth participation in political activities: The art of participation in Bhakkar, Punjab Pakistan. Journal of Human Behavior in the Social Environment, 30 (6), 760-777. <https://doi.org/10.1080/10911359.2020.1745112>
3. Saud, M., & Ashfaq, A. (2021). NGOs schools are promoting education for sustainable development in rural areas. Globalisation, Societies and Education, 1-13. <https://doi.org/10.1080/14767724.2021.1993796>