

Web Profile

Name	Dr. Muhammad Zafar Iqbal Chaudhary
Photogrpah
Designation	Assistant Professor/ In-charge, Academic Affairs
Areas of Expertise	Teachers' Professional Development, Teaching Learning Strategies & Reflective Practices and Pedagogical Psychology.
Office Room No.	Room No. 107, Department of Teacher Education, Faculty of Education, Faculty Block-I, Internatioanl Islamic University, Islamabad, Pakistan
Telephone No.	Contact Office 051-9019408
Email	Email: m.zafar@iiu.edu.pk
Profile	Dr. Muhammad Zafar Iqbal Chaudhary is working as Assistant Professor/Incharge Programmes, Department of Teacher Department of Education, Faculty of Education. His areas of specialization include: Teachers' Professional Development, Teaching Learning

	Strategies & Reflective Practices and Pedagogical Psychology. His areas of interest include; Peace Education, Pygmalion Effect, Golem Effect, Human Growth & Development, Creative Academic Writing, Cooperative Learning, Teaching Practicum, and Islamic System of Education. He has finished his doctoral dissertation on the “Role of Reflective Practices for the Professional Development of Prospective Teachers in Pakistan”. Other than teaching Dr. Chaudhary is supervising a number of Ph.D and M.S scholars. He has authored more than 35 national and international research publications and published one book titled “How to Become a Reflective Teacher”. Dr. Chaudhary has also performed his duties as Research Coordinator MS & Ph.D programme, Sub-editor Educational Magazine, Incharge Learning Management System, Incharge Studio Affairs, Incharge Programmes Directorate of Distance Learning (DDL), and Member of Core Committee DDL. Dr. Zafar believe that there is dire need to promte research culture to improve the quality of instructions, professional standards for teaching, learning environment, classroom climate, learning outcomes and educational practices. Teachers need to work to explore the power of phenomena of motivation. Teachers need to help out students to set career and life related goals. There is dire need to promote the culture of cooperative learning at levels of education. Dr. Muhammad Zafar Iqbal had won three research grants. During 2011 he was awarded Indigenous Scholarship by the Higher Education Commission, Islamabad, Pakistan. During 2013 he was awarded IRSIP, (International Research Support Initiative Programme) scholarship, and worked as Research Associate at National Institute of Education (NIE) at Nanyang Technological University, Singapore. Moreover, he has been awarded travelling and research grants.
--	--