

Web Profile

Name

Dr. Muhammad Zafar Iqbal Chaudhary

Photograph

Designation

Assistant Professor (BPS-19)

Areas of Expertise

Teachers' Professional Development, Teaching Learning Strategies & Reflective Practices and Pedagogical Psychology.

Office Room No.

Room No. 107, Department of Teacher Education, Faculty of Education, Faculty Block-I, International Islamic University, Islamabad, Pakistan

Telephone No.

Contact Office 051-9019408

Email

Email: m.zafar@iiu.edu.pk

Profile

Dr. Muhammad Zafar Iqbal Chaudhary is working as Assistant Professor/Incharge Programmes, Department of Teacher Education, Faculty of Education on regular basis. His areas of specialization include; Teachers' Professional Development, Teaching Learning Strategies & Reflective Practices and Pedagogical Psychology. His areas of interest include; Peace Education, Pygmalion Effect, Golem Effect, Human Growth & Development, Creative Academic Writing, Cooperative Learning, Teaching Practicum, and Islamic System of Education. He has finished his doctoral dissertation on the "Role of Reflective Practices for the Professional Development of Prospective Teachers in Pakistan". Other than teaching Dr. Chaudhary is supervising a number of Ph.D and M.S scholars. He has authored more than 35 national and international research publications and published one book titled "How to Become a Reflective Teacher". Dr. Chaudhary has also performed his duties as Research Coordinator MS & Ph.D programme, Sub-editor Educational Magazine, Incharge Learning Management System, Incharge Studio Affairs, Incharge Programmes Directorate of Distance Learning (DDL), and Member of Core Committee DDL.

Dr. Chaudhary believes that there is dire need to promote research culture in the country to improve the quality of instructions, effective implementation of professional standards for teaching, provision of conducive & interactive learning environment and promotion of outcomes based education. Teachers need to explore the power of phenomena of motivation to help out students to set career and life related goals.

There is dire need to promote the culture of cooperative learning at all levels of education. Dr. Muhammad Zafar Iqbal had won many research grants, Indigenous Scholarships. He has also worked as Research Associate at National Institute of Education (NIE) at Nanyang Technological University, Singapore.