

Lecture on “Muslims Life in United States”

Lincoln Corner organized a lecture on “Muslims Life in United States” by Dr. Saud Anwar, President, Pakistan Public Affairs Committee (PAKPAC) on Wednesday, December 17, 2008. In his presentation, he told that the Muslims are effective part of the American Community, while love, respect, acceptance and partnership among the faiths, groups and nations are proposed solution for humanity. Dr. Abdul Khaliq Qazi, Dean Faculty of Islamic Studies presided over the lecture. Dr. Muhammad Zia-ul-Haq, Professor Faculty of Sharia & Law also addressed the gathering and threw light on “Islamic concept of Interfaith Harmony”. Earlier Mr. Yaqub Ali, Chief Librarian welcomed the resource person, guests and participants and expressed introductory remarks.