

Lecture on “Role of Institutions on Personality Development”

Faculty of Social Sciences in collaboration with Lincoln Corner organized a lecture on “Role of Institutions on Personality Development” on Wednesday November 19, 2008 . Dr. Javed Iqbal, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology was the resource person. He discussed the different institutions playing vital role in the development of personality. Earlier Mr. Muhammad Sajid Mirza, LC Coordinator welcomed the participants and briefed them about the resources and services of LCI & AIRC. In the end, answer question session was conducted by Dr. Asghar Ali Shah, Head of Psychology Department, Dr. Javed Iqbal and Mr. Mazhar Iqbal Bhatti, Lecturer of Department of Psychology. The program was moderated by Dr. Azhar Mehmood, Department of Education. Thirty participants attended this lecture. Program ended with a cup of tea.