

Objectives

The proposed MS Translation Studies program shall aim at achieving following objectives:

1. To prepare proficient multilinguals with linguistic, technical and professional skills, knowledge and capabilities.
2. To prepare researchers with academic groundings in Translation and Interpreting theory and practice.
3. To respond to the rapid changes in the technology and its impact on the domain of Translation and Translation Studies (TS).
4. To contribute in fulfilling the national and international needs of the translation as industry and Translation Studies (TS) as academic discipline.