

Web Profile
Ms. Alina Raza Teaching Research Associate Department of Education (FSS) International Islamic University Islamabad
Brief Introduction: Ms. Alina Raza is a regular faculty member in the Department of Education, Faculty of Social Sciences at International Islamic University Islamabad since 2009. She is currently pursuing her PhD from the Department of Education, International Islamic University Islamabad. Her thesis is on “Application of ADDIE Model for Developing Instructional System Design on Teacher Education”. She also holds an MS (in Education) from IIUI with major focus on “Courseware Development on Teaching Learning Strategies course for Prospective Teachers”. She did her Masters (in Education) with specialization in “Instructional Technology” and her thesis was on “Design and Development of Computer Based Simulations for Art Education at Elementary Level”. She has presented her researches in national and international conferences. She is also an active member of various departmental organizing committees holding workshops, national and international seminars and conferences.
Focus of Teaching: She teaches courses on Teaching Learning Strategies, Curriculum Development, Long-Term Internship (Teaching Practice), Teacher Education, Foundations of Education, Trends and Issues in Education and Learning Theories at undergraduate level.
Focus of Research: Her research interests include Teaching Learning Strategies, Instructional System Design, Module Development, Instructional Technology, E-Learning, Courseware Development, Teacher Education and Learning Theories.
Contact Details: Room # C-18, Fatima Block International Islamic University, H-10 Islamabad. Contact number 051-9019842 Email address: alina.raza@iiu.edu.pk	