

Islamic Research Institute
International Islamic University, Islamabad

Walk-in Interview for Ad-hoc appointments

IRI needs researchers qualified and motivated to undertake research in Islamic Studies (Qur'ānic & Hadith Studies and Islamic Thought) , Islamic Law, or Sirah/Islamic History with a broad base of knowledge in Social Sciences/Humanities and having proven ability of academic writing and research for appointment against the following posts on ad-hoc basis.

The candidates are required to have good proficiency in Arabic and the ability to comprehend and articulate themselves in English.

(1) Lecturer (BPS-18)

Qualifications: “First class Master’s degree (18 years education) OR M.Phil in the relevant field with no third Division in the academic career (starting from graduate level on-wards) from HEC recognized University/ Institution”.

(2) Teaching/ Research Associate (BPS-17)

Qualifications: “First class Master’s degree (16 years education) or Equivalent in the relevant subject”.

The test/interview will be held at 10.00 a.m. on Saturday, March 6, 2010 in Seminar room of IRI, IIU at old campus, Faisal Masjid Complex, Islamabad.

The candidates are required to bring along their research work, including theses, and published or unpublished papers/assignments, their CV and educational testimonials or any other evidence of their qualifications.

[Muhammad Jamil]
Deputy Director (A&F)
Ph: 9262256