PRESS RELEASE

SHARĪ'AH ACADEMY ORGANISES FIRST ONLINE LAW ORIENTATION COURSE FOR MUFTIS

First online Law orientation Course for Muftis under the auspices of the Shariah Academy is being successfully going on. This six-day course is the first of its kind and the response is very encouraging as hundreds of Ulama and religious scholars are participating in the course. They include muftis from Pakistan, India, Indian occupied Kashmir, Turkey, UK, USA, Qatar, Afghanistan and many other countries.

The course consists of six broader themes about the legal system of Pakistan, its Constitutional structure, criminal justice system, civil and family, human rights law and contemporary legal issues relating to medical profession and commercial transactions.

The Academy is providing pre-recorded lectures to the Participants along with questionnaires to be filled and submitted within due time. The Participants are also encouraged to raise questions and give their feedback on each and every lecture. These lectures are also being uploaded on the official YouTube Channel of the Academy. After fulfilling all the pre-requisites and proper evaluation, the participants will be awarded course completion certificates.
